

Emilia Barry Equine Dental Services always strive to provide a clear, honest and transparent approach regarding how and when I may collect and use your personal data. I am committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

Along with my terms and conditions (can be viewed via this website), my privacy policy explains when and why I collect personal information about people who I visit and when they visit my website, how I use it, the conditions under which I may disclose it to others and how I store it.

For the purpose of the General Data Protection Regulations 2018 (GDPR), the data controller is Emilia Barry Equine Dental Services, Northwall Farm, Tideford Cross, Saltash, Cornwall, PL12 5JY and the Data Officer is Emilia Barry on telephone: 07530982157 or email: horsedentalservices@gmail.com

What is our lawful basis for collecting personal data

The lawful basis upon which I will be collecting data comes under four headings – legitimate interests and contractual.

- Legitimate Interests

Personal data may be legally collected under legitimate interests and your personal data will only be used if we consider it fair and balanced to do so and if it is within your reasonable expectations. We will balance your rights and our legitimate interests to ensure that we use your personal data in ways that are not unduly intrusive or unfair.

- Contractual

Data processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are party or to take steps at the request of you prior to entering into a contract (using our veterinary services)

Why I collect your information

I collect personal data;

- For carefully considered and legitimate business purposes, which help ensure I can efficiently deliver dental services

Protecting your information

I have strict security procedures for the storage and disclosure of your information to prevent data leaks.

All personal information given to me via my website is encrypted by a secure server before it is sent to me. However, information transmitted by the internet cannot be completely secure. Secure transmission of your data through our site cannot be guaranteed and is done at your own risk.

My data is stored/handled inside of the EEA (European economic area).

Identifiable personal data will be destroyed from our records six years after the date of our last interaction. In most cases, this represents six years after the last financial transaction.

Phone calls may be monitored and recorded to ensure standards are met and maintained.

When leaving my website via external links these are not our responsibility and that once you click on a link to an external site it will be subject to that organisation's privacy policies, not mine.

Disclosure of your personal data

I will not exchange or sell your personal information to another organisation for their own marketing purposes. However, there are legitimate situations where I may have to share your personal information with other organisations.

- Veterinary Surgeons, insurance companies, debt collectors and legal representatives.
- Search engine providers and analytics/cookies that assist us in the improvement of my site
- Or where I am using an external service provided via a technical supplier, email broadcaster, or mailing services provider. In these situations, the relationship between me and the third-party data processor will be governed by a contract and strict security requirements will be in place to protect your personal information.
- Third-party service providers working on my behalf; I may pass your information to my third-party service providers, agents, subcontractors and other associated organisations for the purpose of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf (for example Google Calender and Microsoft Cloud for remote email access) However, when I use third party service providers, I disclose only the personal information that is necessary to deliver the service and I ensure their own privacy policies are in place that requires them to keep your information secure and not use it for their own direct marketing purposes. Disclosure of personal data to third parties may occur if I am required to share/disclose data to comply with any legal obligations, to enforce or apply our terms and conditions, exchanging information with other organisations/companies for fraud protection, credit risk, internal investigations including customer complaints and claims. Privacy policies of my third-party service providers can be obtained.

I will use your data to contact you via post, phone, text, email and/or SMS for discussing treatment details, services and reminders.

Phone calls may be monitored and recorded to ensure our standards are met and maintained.

I may use any feedback and comments (excluding personal data) which you provide to post publicly without notice or any fee being paid in any media worldwide for marketing, promotion and/or publicity.

Collection of data through cookies

My website is monitored and improved using Cookies. Cookies are pieces of data that are stored on your browser and help keep track of the movements and actions on a website.
